

Transport options for getting to the Whitehorse Civic Centre, Nunawading Library and Whitehorse Centre (Civic Centre precinct)

It's easy to get to the Whitehorse Civic Centre precinct by walking, cycling and public transport. Choosing one of the options below will help the environment and your health!

TRAINS - Belgrave/Lilydale Line to Nunawading (zone 2)

Exit the station and walk north along Springvale Road for approximately 150 metres, cross Whitehorse and Springvale Roads at the pedestrian crossings, turning right at Whitehorse Road. The Whitehorse Civic Centre is approximately 400 metres along on your left. Look for the statue of a white horse out the front.

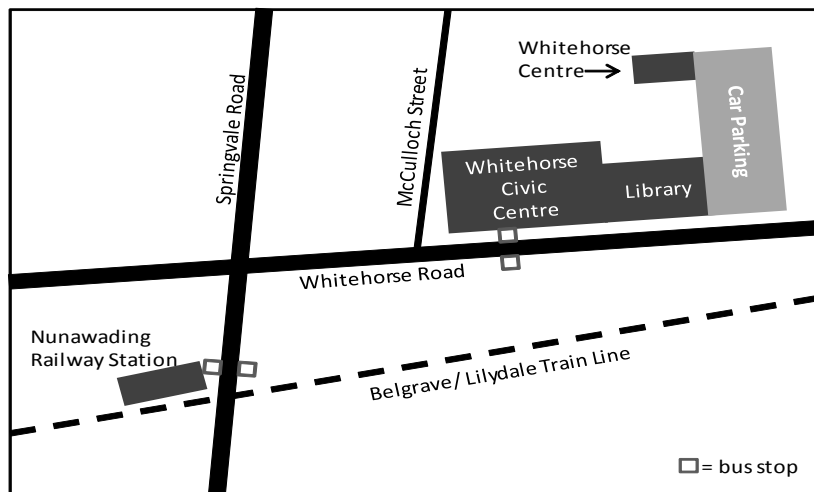

BUSES - A number of bus routes service the municipality and stop within walking distance of the Civic Centre precinct.

SmartBus 901 (Frankston to Melbourne Airport) - This is a high frequency service that provides cross-town services along major arterial roads. Get off at the McCulloch Street/ Whitehorse Road stop which is right outside the Civic Centre precinct.

Route 273 (The Pines to Nunawading) and SmartBus 902 (Chelsea to Airport West) - Get off the bus at Nunawading Train Station. Walk north along Springvale Road for approximately 150 metres, cross Whitehorse and Springvale Roads at the pedestrian crossings, turning right at Whitehorse Road. The Whitehorse Civic Centre is approximately 400 metres along on your left. Look for the statue of a white horse out the front.
