

AUSTRALIA DAY CIVIC AWARDS

CRITERIA AND ELIGIBILITY

A fair go, a concern for the environment, desire for prosperity with a share for all, participation in sport, cultural diversity, the importance of strong community values and support systems, and a keen sense that we have our own contribution to make on the world stage - these are all considered among the key factors in the national identity. To use more abstract terms, tolerance, democracy, equity and equality of opportunity are essential Australian values, which while in some cases not universally enjoyed, are aspirations for Australians as a whole.

These key factors in the national identity form the basis for the selection of recipients for the awards and will be considered in both the nominating and selection processes. Outstanding achievement or contribution towards these shared values is the basis of the awards.
