15/02/2025	I attended the Shen Yun Melbourne Performance on Saturday night at the performance hall Convention centre.	250.00	Falan Dafa Association of Victoria	Cr Blair Barker	Accepted Gift	The show is about a celebration of traditional Chinese culture, through dance and music, traditional costumes and history, with parables and stories of dynasties and the many varied cultures in China, from Tibet to SW China. I suppose i looked at it as an educational experience to gain a better understanding of the culture and the group. Yes, i have a large community in my ward that is culturally Chinese, that are eager to share their cultural heritage with me as their elected representative. I have a significant number of falan dafa members in my area there is a large practise site in my ward (Box Hill Gardens). I think i am better equipped to understand the history and culture. I'm not really much of a fan of 'dance', but appreciated the cultural, artistic and musical aspects. It was very good and interesting.
